The Court has reviewed the entire record, including the Administrative Record, the memoranda of the parties, and the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge John L. Weinberg. It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) The Court adopts the Report and Recommendation and REVERSES the decision of the Commissioner.

(2) The Court REMANDS for further proceedings consistent with the Report and Recommendation.

(A) On remand, the Commissioner should secure further testimony from a Vocational Expert. The ALJ, or Plaintiff's counsel, should pose one or more hypothetical questions which accurately reflect the impairments and limitations

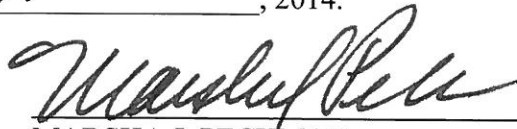

01 previously found by the ALJ. Specifically, this should include any limitations on the use
02 of the right wrist and/or hand, including any limitations on overhead reaching and gross
03 manipulation. The questions should also specify that the person is right hand
04 dominant.

05 (B) The Vocational Expert can then testify as to whether such a person could
06 perform the job of grain picker.

07 (C) The Commissioner should then take this testimony into account and
08 make a new determination, consistent with this court's present findings.

09 (3) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to all counsel and to Judge Weinberg.

10 DATED this 5th day of Sept., 2014.
